

Oakhaven Hospice Trust

“We are delighted to have such a wonderful relationship with New Milton Sand & Ballast – they continually support us in many different ways, holding their own in house charity events, helping us with very valuable publicity and joining us as a team at our own fundraising events. We really do rely on support from our local businesses and the general public so we cannot thank them enough for the help they have provided over the years!”

